To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to thank Lee Gartstein and Business Communications Management for the telecommunication management services that they are currently providing us at Money Media and their ability to keep our services up and running when one of current providers was going out of business.

Through the support of Lee Gartstein, our Account Executive at BCM, they were able to provide a reliable and cost effective replacement alternative, provide a redundant solution/disaster recovery and coordinate the conversion seamlessly & effectively.

I would highly recommend Lee Gartstein & Business Communications Management/ McGraw Communications to any business to manage all or part of their communication services.

Thank you again.
